MEDICINAL.

THE FIRST STEP

Of the child is an event in the mother's life. How proud she feels when the attempt to walk is begun so early as to evidence childish courage and sturdy strength. Such pride should be enjoyed by every mother. But it often happens that the child is timid, weak and deficient in vitality, and clings to the mother's arms with no desire to walk or play.

Mother should learn that to have strong children they must themselves be strong, for the child's strength is the gift of the mother. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription by expectant mothers gives them health and strength to give their children. It nourishes the nerves, strengthens the body and gives great muscular strength and elasticity, so that the baby's advent is practically painless.

"I have been using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and can say it is just what you advertise it to be, and can cheerfully recommend it," writes Mrs. Victor J. Hadin, of Leonardville, Riley Co., Kansas. "I began taking it just two months before baby came and was greatly benefited by its use. The doctor who attended me said I did about as well as any one he had seen (as I was sick only about three hours), and also that my 'Favorite Prescription' was 'the one patent medicine' which he had never failed to recommend."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages, is given away. Send 21 one-cent stamps for expense of mailing only, for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ATTACHMENT FOR PRIEST.

A body attachment was issued in New York by Judge Foster for Rev. D. P. O'Flynn, of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church. The priest is declared in contempt of court, Father O'Flynn declared last night he would stand by his rights, and that if he should be arrested he would go into court followed by a brass band. Father O'Flynn is one of the best-known priests in New York. He has charge of all the records of St. Joseph's church, which date back nearly 100 years and which are kept safe in the parish house. Michael Gallagher, an ex-convict and a driver, was on trial before Judge Foster yesterday charged with bigamy. Wife No. 1 testified that she was married to Gallagher in St. Joseph's church, February 28, 1892. To prove that the certificate showing the performance of the first ceremony was an exact copy of the records, Assistant District Attorney Chadwick had a subpoena issued for Father O'Flynn. It was handed to Detective Feeney, of Mr. Jerome's staff. He was told to get the priest to come to court forthwith with the records of the parish. What happened is told in the language of the detective: "I went to the parish house," he said, "and handed the subpoena to Father O'Flynn. He looked at it, tore it into small pieces and then threw it into my face. 'Take this,' he said to me, 'and tell Jerome that I will not go to court and that I tore his subpoena into small pieces.'"

Feeney returned to court and told Chadwick what had occurred. The attorney notified Justice Foster, and an attachment for the arrest of the priest was given to Detective Sergeant Rappolt. He went to the parish house, and was told that Father O'Flynn was not at home. "I will make no further motion in the case," announced Mr. Chadwick. "I will say, however, that the arrest and conviction of Father O'Flynn would not defeat the ends of justice, so far as the present trial is concerned. I feel that the priest is guilty of contempt of court."

"Your Honor," said Lawyer Horan, "I appear for Father O'Flynn. I will state that the priest meant no disrespect to this court or to the District Attorney. All that the priest wants to know is why he should be asked to come to court. He cannot see why his presence here is needed." "I have nothing to do with that," replied Judge Foster. "All I know is that the District Attorney asked me for an attachment for Father O'Flynn and that such attachment was issued by me."

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

George Worthington Garwood, a wealthy coal broker, aged sixty-five years, yesterday shot and killed Hilda Vogel, aged about twenty-two, and then killed himself, in a room occupied by the couple, in Pittsburgh, Pa. Jealousy was the cause of the deed. Garwood was a retired farmer, living at California, Pa. His wife and nine children are still living. For the past two or three years he has been occupying himself in dealing in coal land options in and around his native town, and was successful. This business necessitated living in Pittsburgh a good part of his time, and about two years ago it is said he became infatuated with Hilda Vogel, who was a waitress in the restaurant where Garwood took his meals. Since then the couple had been on more or less intimate terms, the man frequently showing his jealousy over the attentions shown the girl by other men. In July Garwood took rooms at the Moultrie House and introduced the woman as his wife. On Monday night Garwood took the Vogel woman and several of her friends to one of the local theaters, occupying one of the boxes. Before the performance was finished Garwood left the house in an angry mood and did not return. It is not known what time the couple reached their rooms Monday night, but yesterday evening when they failed to appear the keeper of the boarding-house, Mrs. Howard Lindh, called a policeman and the room door was broken in. The woman was found lying in bed under the covering with a bullet hole in her temple, and Garwood was lying outside of the bed clothes with a bullet in his heart. No person in the house heard the shots, and it is not known when the double killing took place. Evidently the woman was asleep when shot and apparently never moved after the bullet entered her brain. On the dresser was found a note written by Garwood, giving the names and addresses of both and saying "Love was the cause." Members of the girl's family believe jealously of an old friend of Hilda's prompted the act. They do not know his name, other than Charlie. When murdered the girl wore a locket around her neck with the initials "C. N." engraved on it. The Garwood family is one of the most prominent in Fayette county.

CRIME AMONG BOYS.—Commonwealth's Attorney Tilton says an epidemic of crimes seems to be sweeping over the youth of Norfolk. "My authority for this statement," continued Mr. Tilton, "is the criminal docket of the Corporation Court. For the next term, which will begin on Monday next, there are no less than seven cases on the docket in which the offenders are white boys whose ages average less than 15 years. The crimes with which these youths are charged range from murder all down the minor offenses. They include housebreaking, highway robbery and petty theft. It is an alarming condition and one that I cannot account for."

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"B. L. Byer, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors call bilious dysentery and could get nothing to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief," says R. T. Little, merchant, Hancock, Md. For sale by Richard Gibson.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea, the pleasant, cleanses and breaks the whole surface of every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A Purgative Pleasure.
If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the nerves, cleanse and break the whole surface of every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeably aromatic. It is relieved through the nostrils, cleanses and breaks the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. A remedy for Nasal Catarrh which is drying or exciting to the diseased membrane should not be used. Cream Balm is recognized as a specific. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail. A cold in the head immediately disappears when Cream Balm is used. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.
